BUSINESS EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION

The Georgetown Police Department maintains voluntary emergency contact information for local businesses. This information helps Police, Fire, EMS, and emergency communications personnel quickly reach a responsible representative when an emergency or significant incident occurs outside normal business hours.

Examples include alarms, fire, water leaks, property damage, break-ins, suspicious activity, or other situations requiring a responsible business representative.

Providing this information is voluntary, but having current information on file can save valuable time during an emergency, especially after hours.

⚠ PLEASE READ — SENSITIVE SECURITY INFORMATION ⚠

Do not include passwords, alarm codes, access codes, safe combinations, keys, or other sensitive security information if submitting this form electronically or by email.

If you would like the Police Department to maintain sensitive security or access information, please contact us or provide it in person at the Police Department.
